

Historically Underserved Farmers and Ranchers

The following subgroups can be considered as historically Underserved Farmers and Ranchers depending on the USDA agency and policy. The numbers are based on the 2017 agriculture census.

Socially Disadvantaged Farmers/Ranchers (SDFR)	Principal Producers
• American Indians and Alaskan Natives only	46,210
• Asians only	16,978
• Black or African Americans only	38,447
• Hispanic	66,727
Total SDFR for the above subgroups	168,362
Women are included in FSA and RMA USDA programs	798,500
Total SDFR including women is 966,862 less 50,000 (to account for women included in SDFR above)	916,862
Total All Producers	2,740,453
Beginning Farmers and Ranchers	*
Veteran Farmers and Ranchers	*
Limited Resource Farmers and Ranchers (80% of all agricultural producers have sales of less than $100,000 per year)	*
High Poverty Area Farmers and Ranchers	*

(*) Numbers unavailable in the 2017 Census of Agriculture